G-402 NIMS Overview for Senior Officials

May 27, 2026

Kenton County Administration Building
1840 Simon Kenton Way, Covington, KY 41011
5:30p – 10:00p

Course Description

G-402 provides senior officials with a high-level overview of the Incident Command System (ICS) and their responsibilities during incidents, emergencies, and disasters. The course focuses on executive-level leadership, policy direction, and coordination, not tactical or operational response roles. Participants will examine how senior officials effectively support on-scene command, Emergency Operations Centers (EOCs), and multi-agency coordination while preserving appropriate authority, oversight, and accountability.

Student Criteria

This course is intended for: Elected Officials, Appointed Officials, Senior Executives, Agency Leadership, Department Heads, and Policy-Level Decision Makers. It is also open to all local, state, and regional officials with incident management authority.

Special Notes

Advance student registration is REQUIRED and must be received by May 20, 2026 to participate in this course. You are considered accepted as a student in this class upon receipt of your application by this office. You will not receive a letter acknowledging that acceptance.
